

Contents

Introduction	7
Francesco Marroni
Jane Austen's Textualization of a Delusional World: Rhetorical Epistolarity and Verbal Miscalculation in Emma	13
Gloria Lauri-Lucente
Pride and Prejudice in Fidelity Criticism: The Case of Jane Austen's Emma	37
Valerie Wainwright
"A disposition to think a little too well of herself": A Psychological Approach to Emma	65
Francesca Saggini
"A smile at something unseen": The Structuring Principle in Emma	93
Ivan Callus
Jane and Jacques: Matchmaking, Telepathy and Deconstruction in Jane Austen's Emma	133
Marianna D'Ezio
"Musing on the difference of woman's destiny": Reconsidering Emma 's "Happy" Ending	169
Mary Patricia Kane
Self-definition and the Law of Property in Emma	185
Silvia Antosa
Sexing Emma : Stable and Unstable Bodies in Jane Austen's Fictional World	205

Massimo Verzella
A Matter of Degree :
First Steps in a Corpus Stylistic Approach to Emma	231
Luigina Castorani
Fashionable Emma	245
Eleonora Sasso
Emma's Afterlives: Austen, Atwood and McCullough	263
Michele Russo
Echoes of Emma's Voice in America:
M. Fuller and L. M. Alcott	279
Notes on Contributors	301